Gender

Clothing communicates gender

"Christine Ross suggests that VB 39 is 'masculinizing the female role of to be looked at-ness.' [5] As in her earlier works, VB 39 objectifies its models, but unlike the female models populating most of Beecroft's performances, Navy SEALs are popular sex symbols."

"I observe things all the time. I don't take references while I'm drawing, but I'm always collecting information and storing it very carefully on daily basis, almost hablually. I study images of all kinds, mostly from the 19th century that let's see expression about art since he was a kid." Kim Jung Gi

Diaspora": Ocampo was tying the knots on the encoded ribbons of medals, thus creating a long sequence of string with the color of the Philippine flag. He tied the other end of the string in one corner and the other end at the pillar located at the center of the Bar. Then he asked the audience to tie the other ribbons on the string.

"The dangling ribbons created an image of "banting", which is typically used during the town fiesta celebration. Then, Ocampo began circling around the posts located at the center of the bar murmuring:
"Life is hard, not here, not for me" until he completed wrapping the string around them.

addressing the plight of 10 million overseas workers around the world and the knotted string dashed with ribbons symbolizes the convergence of overseas workers to make the Philippine economy afloat from the pit of perdition.
