

BIOGRAPHY

Sean E Avery is a primary art teacher, author-illustrator, and designer born in South Africa; living in Perth, Western Australia. Nationally, he's best known as the creator of best-selling children's picture books, All Monkeys Love Bananas and Frank's Red Hat.

His picture book, Happy as a Hog Out of Mud, won the 2022 WAYRBA Picture Book of the Year Award and Frank's Red Hat won the 2023 CBCA Shadow Judges and WAYRBA Picture Book of the Year awards and was shortlisted for the 2023 Indie, Taco and CBCA Picture Book of the Year Award. His books have been translated into Arabic, Mandarin, French, Korean, German and Danish. Sean's new graphic novel series, Ducky the Spy, published by Walker Books Australia, is being released in April (book 1) and September (book 2) 2024.

In his previous artistic career, Sean was a sculptor who used CDs and DVDs to create breathtaking works of art that reside in galleries and private collections worldwide. His sculptures have been featured in publications like Ripleys Believe It Or Not!, The Huffington Post, and Kid's National Geographic to name a few. He represented Australia in the 2014 Waste To Art Exhibition in Baku, Azerbaijan where he built sculptures with other international artists from all around the world.

Sean currently works as the art specialist at Carnaby Rise Primary School where he has set an impressive standard for his visual art programme. His students have won many prestigious awards for creativity such as the Shaun Tan Art Award and CBCA WA Make Your Own Storybook competition. He organises annual community events, art shows and runs PD for art teachers in Metro WA. He has also established a small publishing imprint at the school that publishes one student book a year that is professionally produced and sold to raise money for the P&C.

PRESENTATIONS & WORKSHOPS

Sean is a primary school teacher employed by the WA Department of Education. He has over 10 years of experience teaching children from PP – 6, so is able to present to or run workshops with any group of primary-aged children. His picture books are suitable for PP – 2 students and his graphic novels are suitable for 3 – 6 students.

He is available on Mondays, Tuesdays, and school holidays for presentations and workshops in 2024.

Bookings are now closed for 2024. Join Sean's mailing list at seaneavery.com to receive updates on when 2025 bookings open.

A delightfully charming and cheekily dark picture book about staying true to yourself and creating things that make you happy.

Frank is a penguin with ideas. Mostly terrible ones. That's why his fellow penguins are nervous when he shows them his strange new creation. Something they'd never seen or expected to see in their cold and colourless Antarctic world — a red hat. The other penguins have no doubt his invention will lead to certain doom...

Frank's Red Hat Number One bestselling Children's Book in Australia August 2023

TESTIMONIALS

“Sean Avery's dynamic picture book incursions with our Year 7 students were very successful. These high school students hung onto every word he said, and he catered for diverse learning styles through a clever use of technology, mixed with good old-fashioned pencil and paper.

Within an hour-long workshop, every student had created a character in a setting and learned some simple creative tips to build their confidence when crafting multimodal narratives.

Our teachers also gained some great tips and strategies to implement in their classrooms. We hope Sean will return to Bunbury Catholic College in years to come so that he can continue to inspire our students and teachers.”

– Cally Yates (Head of English Learning Area, Bunbury Catholic College)

“I've had the privilege of booking Sean E Avery as one of my first book week presenters seven years ago and everywhere I've moved to, he's the first person I look to book in! Sean's passion for his creative endeavours makes every session unique, fun, and engaging. He can inspire kids to be imaginative as well as making them laugh at loud and promotes a love of reading, literature, and art. Sean has also provided a variety of workshops for school holidays and special weeks over the different libraries I've worked for and they've all been successful, well attended and focused on skill development and fun over the finished product, allowing every kid to give it a go.

Sean's background as a teacher absolutely shines as he can take the most rambunctious group and channel their energy into the session flawlessly. Be it art workshops, illustration skills, graphic novel techniques, podcasts, panel discussions or book week, Sean is an absolute professional in his set-up and delivery and makes every session an epic success.”

– Kirsty Lightfoot – Youth Services Librarian & CBCA WA Vice President.

“For Book Week we invited the hilarious and talented, Sean E Avery, to our school. “Frank's Red Hat” is one of our favourite books and the students were eager to find out how Sean comes up with the characters and ideas for his stories. He thoroughly entertained our PP-Year 3 students and teachers with his wonderful stories about perseverance and resilience. Sean's energy and enthusiasm are infectious, and he inspires the students to have a go at drawing cute characters and think of ideas to write their own stories. His presentation is fun, engaging and interactive. All his books are now hot property in our library with so many students wanting to borrow his amazing stories.”

– Sasha Cattapan (Primary Library Teacher John XXIII College)

Australian books The best Australian children's books of 2023: Alice Pung, Davina Bell, Sean Avery and more

Friendly Bee and Friends series by Sean E Avery, Walker Books Australia

Un-bee-lievably sweet character

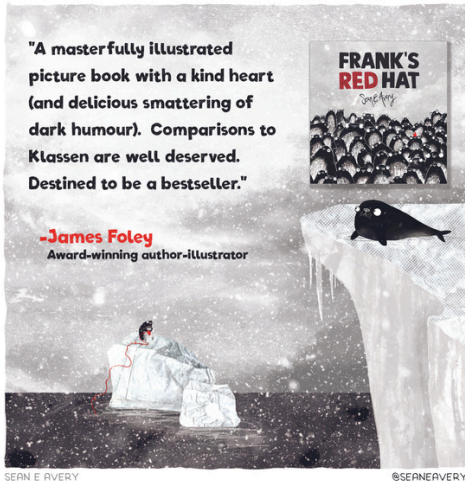

Crafted by a rising star of the Australian kid lit scene, Sean E Avery, Friendly Bee is an optimistic insect on a mission to befriend bugs, whether they welcome it or not.

Presented in a comic strip layout with vibrant yellow and black illustrations, these book effortlessly mix narrative with nonfiction. Friendly Bee often finds himself in amusing predicaments, but fortunately his reluctant BFF, Angry Wasp, regularly steps in to rescue the cheerful bee from impending disaster. Clever Cricket chimes in with fascinating bug facts amid Friendly Bee's entertaining escapades.

Packed with entertaining characters, rambunctious action and constant laughs, these books mark the beginning of an exciting graphic novel series for young readers.

"A masterfully illustrated picture book with a kind heart (and delicious smattering of dark humour). Comparisons to Klassen are well deserved. Destined to be a bestseller."

MEDIA RELEASE

Walker Wednesday entry leads to four-book deal for WA Author

Walker Book Australia has signed a four-book deal with West Australian author Sean E Avery, after he submitted his manuscripts through Walker Wednesday in July '20. Sean's manuscripts were two out of over 1200 manuscripts submitted in the first round of Walker Wednesday, where the editorial team and other passionate staff members review unpublished manuscripts for all ages (picture books, junior fiction, middle grade fiction and YA) from new and established writers.

Walker Wednesday is now an annual event that saw nearly 3000 submissions received in 2020, from aspiring authors across Australia and New Zealand.

"We are super excited to be publishing two picture books and two graphic novels from the hugely talented Sean E Avery. First sighted when our reading-obsessed team was devouring the thousands of submissions that flooded in from our popular Walker Wednesday call out, his manuscripts shone like beacons and simply could not be ignored. And so we jumped on them as quickly as we could and cannot wait to share them with readers everywhere," says Linsay Knight, Publisher at Walker Books Australia.

Perth's Sean E Avery voted CBCA's Shadow Judging Picture Book of the Year for 2023

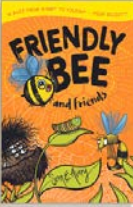

Tanya MacNaughton | The West Australian
Fri, 25 August 2023 3:13PM

The kids are alright for Perth author Sean E Avery whose book Frank's Red Hat has been voted as the Children's Book Council of Australia's Shadow Judging Picture Book of the Year for 2023.

A week after fellow Perth author Craig Silvey won the official CBCA Younger Readers award for his book Runt, the votes of thousands of children from around Australia in the CBCA Shadow Judging Awards have been tallied for their own winning books out of the CBCA Book of the Year Award Shortlist.

"This Un-BEE-lievably fun book is the bee's knees. As sweet as Narwhal & Jelly with the sting of Catwad, Friendly Bee & Friends is destined to be a hit with young graphic novel fans everywhere. The creative layouts are buzzing with banter, bursting with heart, filled with facts and packed with laughs. You'll love hanging out with your cheeky new B(ee). F. F.s."

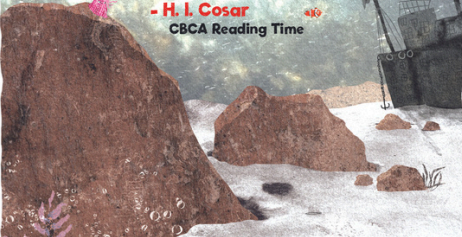

- Matt Cosgrave
Author-Illustrator of Macca the Alpaca

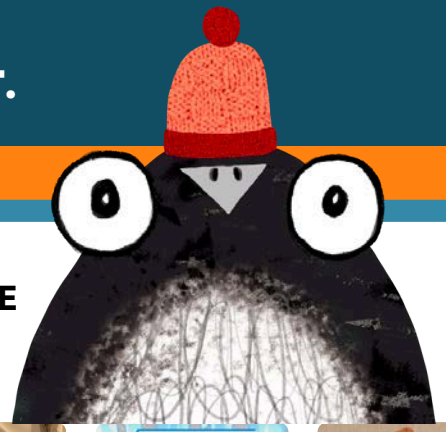

GRAPHIC NOVEL
AGES 7-10
APRIL 2023

"There are many children's books that teach us about the environment but few can masterfully weave difficult concepts like symbiosis in a child friendly way through a story about friendship that children can relate to. Whilst the written story is engaging, informative and loads of fun, the illustrations also help tell a story about the depths of the ocean."

CARNABY PRESS

CARNABY PRESS

Established by Carnaby Rise Primary Art teacher Sean Avery in 2019, this small publishing imprint is committed to sharing the best stories written and illustrated by Carnaby students.

Each year, the best student book is selected, professionally produced, and sold at an official book launch. The Carnaby P&C pay for printing costs and all proceeds from sales go back to the school (after the student creators receive their royalties of course).

After the initial print run, the student books go on a print-on-demand website where they can be ordered by anyone, anywhere in the world for as long as the student creators want it to remain in print.

Carnaby Press books have been bought and read by children in Australia, Brazil, Europe and the USA.
