

Delia Seigenthaler Biography

Delia Seigenthaler is a mixed media artist who was born in Tennessee and maintains a studio practice in Nashville. After receiving her BFA from Middle Tennessee State University, she spent the following three years as a resident artist at the Appalachian Center for Arts and Crafts in Smithville, Tennessee where she studied ceramics with Tom Rippon. In 1989, she earned her MFA degree from the School of the Art Institute of Chicago in Ceramics. Her work has been shown extensively in galleries and museums across the United States and is included in several permanent collections including The High Museum of Art, Atlanta, Georgia, The City of Chicago Department of Cultural Affairs and the Percent for Art Program, Richard J Daley Branch Library /Public Art Collection, The Huntsville Museum of Art and the Hunter Museum of Art in Chattanooga. She is currently represented by Julia Martin Gallery in Nashville.

Delia's teaching experience includes multiple national and international workshops and has recently retired from full-time teaching at University School of Nashville where she taught ceramics and sculpture for 23 years.

Instagram: deliaseigenthaler