Cohen lives and works in New York, NY. She was born in Egypt, and raised in Paris and Montreal. She received a BFA from Concordia University in Montreal where she studied with Guido Molinari. After moving to New York, she continued her education attending classes at the Art Student's League, the School of Visual Arts and the Whitney seminars. For a year she worked in lithography at the Bob Blackburn Printmaking Workshop. Cohen's work has recently been exhibited at Frosch & Co. (New York, NY) in two group exhibitions, DO Stacks and Paper Power. During the pandemic, her work was included in various online exhibitions at the Jason McCoy Gallery (New York, NY), the Flatfile Gallery, and the Hammond Museum (Salem, MA). Cohen has had two site-specific installations in New York City; one at Cassina, the renowned Italian design company, and one at Basta Pasta, the acclaimed Japanese-Italian restaurant. In 2018, Ellen Fagan of Odetta Gallery in Bushwick brought back to life some of the painting-sculptures from the Cassina installation along with current work in her expansive gallery.
