ADMINISTRATIVE

Glass Studio Manager , Toledo Museum of Art — 2017-Present

Strategize the ongoing development and programs of the Glass Pavilion Studio within the Museum's mission, vision, and strategic plan. Act as an advocate for visitors and Glass Studio participants to create programs and demonstrations that address their interests and needs. Oversee all aspects (technical, logistical, and artistic) of the museum's Glass Studio.

Assistant Glass Studio Manager, Toledo Museum of Art — 2015-2017

Manage the technical and logistical operations of the Glass Studios, including supervising the maintenance of studio tools and machinery, overseeing the fabrication shop, and maintaining adequate supply levels. Ensure that safety measures are in place and followed by those utilizing the facility, including training of new staff in appropriate safety procedures.

Director of Education, Brooklyn Glass — 2011-2015

The Director of Education administers all areas of the Brooklyn Glass educational program. Responsibilities include: Curriculum and course development, scheduling and maintaining the academic calendar, overseeing and implementing the education budget, hiring and organizing instructors, university contracts and relations, ordering and monitoring educational supplies, catalog design, leading studio tours, demonstrations, and teaching classes.

Director of Education, UrbanGlass — 2010-2011

The Director of Education oversees all aspects of the substantial UrbanGlass educational programs. From innovating courses and planning the curriculum to designing catalogs and marketing materials to negotiating University contracts to stocking materials, leading tours, and teaching classes, the Director of Education must be an organized administrator as well as a capable artist and educator who is engaged with the greater glass and art communities.
