

Art Portfolio Preparation for Art School and College

ABOUT SONYA

I'm a practicing artist with over 20 years experience working in art education. In addition to creating sculptural installations, I help students get into top tier art schools and colleges.

Over the last 8 years my expertise in art portfolio preparation has helped my students gain admission into top-tier art schools including RISD, CalArts, SVA and Parsons The Newschool. Students I have worked with have been admitted to—and have attended—their first-choice schools.

WORK WITH ME

Students come to me with a broad range of abilities. I work individually with each student to craft an application package that makes them a desirable candidate for art school admission. Using the generalized art skills students have learned in High School as a starting point, I help them hone in on their interests and further develop their technical skills to create a cohesive and legible art portfolio—one that will gain them access to the school of their choice, and enter into the next important phase of their life.

THE PREPARATION PROCESS

Working with me 1-on-1 over the course of 6 or more weeks, students will work to meet necessary markers showing breadth in their portfolio, demonstrate their depth of skill, delve into a subject or process in-depth, document their work, and write a coherent artist's statement. My students get into top tier art school across the US.

There are 3 ways of working with me:

- 6 sessions over 6 weeks: meet for one hour once each week.
For the student who already has strong artwork/strong technical skills.
- 12 sessions over 6 weeks: meet for one hour twice each week, for more intensive preparation.
- 10 sessions over 10 weeks: working at a slightly slower pace, one hour meetings each week for ten weeks. –Last sign-up date Week of November 9th 2020
