

Orso Czerny is a visual artist working, living and exhibiting between the United states and Europe. Selected exhibitions include: Galleria Lattanzi Carrara Italy, Galeri Vartai Lithuania, Nuart Gallery Santa Fe, Togonon Gallery San Francisco, St. Mary's Art Center Virginia City, Diverse Works Houston, Ken's Art Gallery Florence, USF San Francisco, where he was a guest teacher and lecturer in the Davies Forum. Czerny is the recipient of awards from Vermont Studio Center, Transart Institute, Can Serrat, and SFAI. He studied at SFAI and received his MFA in Interdisciplinary Arts from SNC (2017).

Czerny's multidisciplinary practices are paddles with which he navigates; the compasses guiding him forth - revealing the ritual of creating that binds him to the deeper meanings of being alive and what it means to be human.

"Nature is the true conductor, I am a note, and the things I create are the bridges between".
