

Jacob Lunderby is an artist and educator based in Philadelphia; he earned a BFA in Painting from the Minneapolis College of Art and Design and an MFA in Painting and Drawing from the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis. Lunderby has exhibited work nationally and internationally including exhibitions in Philadelphia, New York, Chicago, Los Angeles, Minneapolis, Miami, Hawaii, Greece, South Korea and Japan, respectively.

Since Summer 2019 Lunderby has collaborated with Josh Weiss as Lunderby/Weiss Studio on two-dimensional, interior based wall designs that reclaim the sacred and sublime in contemporary spaces.

Lunderby is an Assistant Teaching Professor of Drawing in the Art and Art History Department, Westphal College of Media Arts and Design at Drexel University.