

Resume/Bio

Leslie Wagner creates art on and in multiple mediums, and has been exhibiting since 1991. She graduated from Parsons School of Design in New York City, and studied at Parsons in Paris. Her creative process has been informed by meditation in various spiritual traditions and as such she has traveled extensively on pilgrimage to natural and urban landscapes. Her work brought her to a residency at Great Vow Zen Monastery in Oregon, where devoted meditation practice distilled interests in making art concerned with impermanence, and the direct experience of each moment. As a practicing Zen Buddhist, she investigates this intention in her paintings by the dispersion of material, content, light and by the activity of painting itself. Leslie Wagner was awarded a Scholarship to the Footpaths Artist Residency in the Azore Islands, received a Fellowship to the Vermont Studio Center, and most recently received a full Hemera Tending Spaces Fellowship for Artists.
