MAKERS' RETREAT - ATELIER CLOS MIRABEL

Tutor: Davana Robedee

Medium: Natural Dye, Indigo

Level: Beginner/Intermediate

Tuition: 30 Hours per week

Language: English

About the course:

Join textile artist Davana Robedee at Atelier Clos Mirabel for a week of indigo shibori experimentation in the French Pyrénées. Commonly known throughout the world as 'tie-dye', Shibori comes from the Japanese root word Shiboru, meaning to wring, squeeze, or bind. Guided by Davana's experts and step-by-step demonstrations, explore a range of dye techniques, learning the advantages of various vatting and binding methods to create spectacular patterns on cloth. This course is attuned to each individual's needs and abilities, ensuring each student leaves with beautifully dyed fabrics, scarves, or wearables, and instructional handouts to continue their exploration.

About the tutor:

Davana Robedee is a multi-media artist based in Syracuse, New York. Her work has been exhibited internationally and she has successfully organised the acclaimed 'Quilting by the Lake' conference for the past 8 years. Davana is currently Program Director at Schweinfurth Art Center where she works as a curator. Davana is passionate about combining her experience as artist and arts administrator to build connections and foster community.
