

Nancy Muller Bio nancy.g.muller@gmail.com 917-414-0665

Nancy received her initial training in Paris at the La Grande Chaumière where she studied foundational drawing. She received a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1973 at George Washington University with a major in painting. She earned a Masters of Fine Art at American University in 1978. In 2005 she painted at the Art Students League under Harvey Dinnerstein. She studied print making at Il Bisonte Scuola in Florence in 2007. Nancy prefers to work in oil and gouache but is a student of art materials and is comfortable working in many media.

Nancy has held various positions in which she functioned as an artist, illustrator or arts teacher. She worked at the Smithsonian Institution as an illustrator creating scientifically accurate, full color gouache illustrations of birds and dinosaurs for public exhibits and scientific studies. With fellow artists she went into the Martha Valle Middle School in 2000 and taught Puppet making workshops. In Washington, DC, 1980-82 Nancy taught painting and drawing for the National Cathedral School Continuing Education Program.

In 1994-95 Nancy received an AIR at Henry Street Settlement, Abrons Arts Center in New York. Nancy is a founding member of Artists Alliance in New York; and has Exhibited in the annual Open studios held at Clemente Soto Velez Cultural Center from 1996 through 2007. She painted 11 portraits for “Faces of the Fallen,” an exhibition of paintings of American service men and women who had died in Iraq. The portraits were exhibited at the Arlington National Cemetery in 2005.

There have been juried shows along the way, 2004 the 42nd Council, “Fresh Produce” 2000 part of the New York City Fringe Festival at Charas el Bohio Cultural Center; and in 1999, “Line Up Sequences and Scopes” at Henry Street Settlement. Nancy received a MARK 10 grant from the New York Foundation of the Arts 2010. In January of 2013 Nancy spent three weeks in Rome at the American Academy in Rome as part of the Visiting Artists & Scholars Program.

Most recently Nancy has exhibited at the Siren’s Song Gallery in Greenport 2009, 2010, and 2018.