

REBECCA HAMM ART

ENVIRONS

Explore these dynamic compositions interlacing emotive color, based on the wisdom of Nature.

*Environs, 16
acrylic on panel,
20x32x1.5"*

Join us October 11 to celebrate the series Environs.

I often recall dear Karl Benjamin's voice speaking on his thoughts about color, "Color in the hands of a painter, resists verbal definition because it has nothing to do with words, nor with theories, nor with the physics of light. It possesses a powerful, emotive quality, unique in each individual..."

My new Environs Series presents compositions that uplift and flow with energized color, evoking the brilliance of nature. Come join us to celebrate a showing of these works near the locales that inspired them at Concierge Realty Group, directed by Ryan Zimmerman and Mason Prophet, 601 West Foothill, Claremont, CA. These fabulous folks are offering their beautiful spaces for us to enjoy and celebrate together. And, of course we always give back, so portions of any art sales of Environs will benefit local non-profits.

"There's a lot of work being done today that doesn't have any soul in it. The technique may be the utmost perfection, yet it is lifeless. It doesn't have a soul. I hope my furniture has a soul to it."
-Sam Maloof
