

Dennis Losel is an accomplished and published photographer with a significant list of credits. Since 2008, Dennis has traveled across the country covering special events for NBC's "Days of our Lives" and has been a contributing photographer for Soap Opera Digest magazine.

From 2002 - 2009, Dennis was a photojournalist for the New York State Senate, photographing Senators, Assembly Members, Governors and Dignitaries at press conferences, debates, bill signings, rallies and during notable legislative session in the Senate chamber.

Prior to the NYS Senate, Dennis was a photographer for the NYS Department of Environmental Conservation, contributing to the award winning publication "Brownfields"

