Biography

Gigi Antúnez de Mayolo has spent a lifetime exploring the nature of humanity. Born in Lima, Perú, she has lived in rural and cosmopolitan places, from tiny villages of Pozuzo in the Peruvian Amazon jungle and Los Organos in the northern Peruvian desert, to Washington D.C. from where she relocated to Miami in 1992. It was then that she started her search of personal expression in plastic arts. She took classes of Interior Design, Artistic Drawings and Art History at Miami Dade Community College and Florida International University.

Mother, psychologist, tireless fundraiser, director of Religious Education, and an advocate of children rights, she began work as an artist in 1997 at the Miami Art Institute and since 1998 under the tutelage of famed Chilean Painter Jaime Ferrer at his atelier, Studio 1156.

Her portfolio includes several exhibits, that include being selected as a participant artist at the Hispanic Art Expression from Miami Dade-County since its initiation in 2000, Riviera Country Club annual Art Exhibit and the juried exhibit, Pieces from Paradise sponsored by the Key Biscayne Community Foundation, as well as collective exhibits at Luzma Gallery and the show Pursuing Instincts in Grove Isle.
