02.18.22 - 12:00AM Themed mixes are made live and spontaneously on the air, consisting of found sound of many kinds and from many sources, old and new, put together on the run as the continuous audio collage continues.

The full Hanford Reach sound collage and a conversation with Jon Leidecker, a.k.a. Wobbly, airs on the best radio show in all of creation: Over the Edge
12:00 AM (Midnight) PST, February 18th

Themed mixes are made live and spontaneously on the air from a variety of formats and equipment. There is a plan and there is no plan. The mix consists of found sound of many kinds and from many sources, old and new, put together on the run as the continuous audio collage continues. OTE sometimes employs “Receptacle Programming,” which means you.
