

Kristi Totoritis : heartcoreglass

Kristi Totoritis is a recent MVA graduate of the Australian National University's School of Art and Design Glass Workshop in Canberra, Australia. Currently her studio practice and design production are based out of Richmond, VA.

Southern California native Totoritis, completed her BFA at Virginia Commonwealth University in Richmond, VA. She double majored crafts and material studies as well as painting in 2010. In 2011 she completed a competitive internship residency program at the Chrysler Museum of Art Glass Studio as has continued to be adjunct faculty since.

Totoritis has studied both nationally and internationally at craft schools including Pilchuck Glass School, Penland School of Crafts, Pittsburgh Glass Center, The Studio at Corning and Canberra Glassworks. She passes this knowledge on as well as her own to help raise the love and awareness of glass where she acts as an adjunct instructor at institutions such as The Chrysler Museum of Art Glass Studio, The Glass Spot, and The Visual Arts Center of Richmond.