I can’t continue this journey without you.*

In gratitude, thank you.”

“Marion is a super talented artist. She has a wealth of experience and knowledge in her field of painting and teaching art. Marion exudes great passion and fierce energy when it comes to her love for painting. Her work translates these emotions beautifully by taking you to a rather spiritual world where you connect with yourself and the universe on many levels. The vibrant colours, soft yet efficiently intentional brush strokes and spontaneous movement of her fingers on the canvas, create an effortless sense of artist at play. Some of her series take 10 years to develop and manifest. Marion’s paintings are an excellent unique addition to any space. Each piece will ignite a silent invitation to an inner dialogue - in your home or place of business, where your family, friends, colleagues and clients can connect, converse over these one of a kind pieces of beautiful art.”

“I purchased a painting from Marion about 8-9 years ago and it hangs prominently in my apartment. Even today its probably my favourite piece among about 10 works I own. I believe it has also appreciated in value. I wouldn't hesitate to buy from Marion again if I have a desire for more art.”
