In Gratitude

“I am very grateful for my artistic gifts and my wonderful patrons who have supported me for years. I can't continue this journey without you. Thank you.”

“I am a big fan of Marion's art. Over the years I have bought two large paintings, a medium piece and 6 smaller paintings. I never get tired of her paintings and really enjoy her depiction of grasses and trees. I also have 6 of her wonderful drawings. I really recommend her work to anyone. I really feel it is exceptionally good value for the quality of the works.”

“Marion is a super talented artist. She has a wealth of experience and knowledge in her field of painting and teaching art. Marion exudes great passion and energy when it comes to her love for painting. Her work translates these emotions beautifully by taking you to a spiritual world where you connect with yourself and the universe on many levels. The vibrant colours, luscious brush strokes and spontaneous movement of her fingers on the canvas, create an effortless sense of artist at play. Some of her series take 10 years to develop and manifest. Marion's paintings are an excellent unique addition to any space. Each piece will ignite a silent invitation to an inner dialogue - in your home or place of business, where your family, friends, colleagues and clients can connect, and converse over these unique pieces of beautiful art.”

“Marion's paintings bring the colours and textures of nature alive on canvas. When we look at her work, it's like looking through a window and we can feel the warmth and sense of joy of being in that moment. That moment remains forever!

“I purchased a painting from Marion about 8-9 years ago and it hangs prominently in my apartment. Even today it's probably my favourite piece among about 10 works I own. I believe it has also appreciated in value. I wouldn't hesitate to buy from Marion again if I have a desire for more art.”

– Derek B., Long Term Patron
