

Eric Larson lives and works in San Francisco. He received his MFA from California College of the Arts in 2004, and a BA in Philosophy from Ball State University in 1995. He has exhibited his art in many venues in the Bay Area and nationally including Southern Exposure, Johansson Projects, Swarm Gallery and Kala Art Institute, where he was the recipient of the Parent Artist Award. His art practice is primarily based in collage, but works with many different media and materials. He is a studio manager and art instructor at Creativity Explored, a visual arts program for adults with disabilities in San Francisco. He has curated several exhibitions for Creativity Explored, most recently "Faces and Places" at the Eureka Valley Branch of the San Francisco Public Library, 2019.