

Price List

S. Jordan of Animal Friends Portraits paints whimsical, original art on canvas and on paper. As of spring 2017, she adjusted her price list for canvas to better reflect time spent.

Canvas

All portraits are painted in acrylics on gallery-wrapped canvas, with the canvas sides painted, so you don't have to frame it unless you choose to. All canvas paintings come ready to hang with wires attached to the back. Most paintings on canvas show face and some shoulders. Jordan draws a preliminary sketch for you to approve based on photographs you provide. You have the option of requesting progress photographs.

Paper

If you are looking for a painting of your pet being active in a cartoonish style, consider a painting on paper. Prices start at $150 for a painting of one animal, with the price increasing for complicated ideas or details. Jordan draws a preliminary sketch for you to approve. The art work will be professionally matted in black or white to fit a standard size frame.

Payment

Once you have committed to a painting, you must pay 50% down before Jordan begins painting. When the painting is almost finished, Jordan emails you a photograph or sketch of the painting and will work with you until you are happy. Then, you pay the remaining 50% before she ships it to you. Expedited shipping or out-of-country shipping is extra.
