Lecturer

Courses: Introduction to Visual Arts, Maritime Arts, and Creativity

These introductory courses explore hands-on projects ranging from figure drawing to wire sculpture.

Students study history as well as contemporary examples and processes paired with literature

2019

San Francisco Art Institute

Adjunct

Designed a studio-based course called "Soft Sculpture, Materials and Contexts" which built on the foundations of textiles and conceptualism.

Integrated technologies such as laser cutting, weaving, and machine sewing with processes such as indigo dyeing and hand embroidery.

2012- 2018

Harvey Milk Center for the Arts, San Francisco, CA

Art Instructor

Developed and taught over 10 visual art and textile courses to students ranging in age from 4-83 years old. Courses include beginning to advanced sewing, sculpture, drawing, painting, embroidery, digital storytelling, and fashion. Worked with students to curate artwork around the center and organized fashion shows.
