

Kate Budd

Biography

Kate Budd was born in Nairobi, Kenya in 1969. She received a BA (hons.) degree from Gray's School of Art in Aberdeen, Scotland (1990) and an MFA in Sculpture from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale (1995).

Kate Budd has received four Individual Excellence Awards from the Ohio Arts Council and her work has been exhibited in numerous group exhibits, including State of the Art 2020 at Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art, Bentonville, Arkansas. Solo exhibits include tableau at William Busta Gallery in Cleveland, Ohio; Thorny at Rudolph Poissant Gallery, Houston, Texas; Kate Budd: On Site Ohio at the Akron Art Museum and Talisman at Kenyon College, Ohio. Her work has been reviewed in Art in America, New Art Examiner, Sculpture magazines and was selected for the hardcover edition of 100 Best 2015 Creative Quarterly. Her sculpture is in the collections of Sonny Burt & Robert Butler of Dallas, Texas; ProcessCreative, Cleveland, Ohio; Wright State University, Dayton, Ohio; and the Progressive Collection, Cleveland, Ohio.

Before coming to the Myers School of Art at the University of Akron, Kate taught in the sculpture department at the University of Texas in Austin for three years. She is now an Associate Professor of Art at the Myers School of Art where she has taught 3-D Design and Sculpture since 1998.