FACT was one of twelve recipients of the 2010 National Arts and Humanities Youth Program Awards (Coming Up Taller Award) presented by Michelle Obama on behalf of the President's Committee on the Arts and the Humanities (https://nasaa-arts.org/nasaa_research/national-arts-humanities-youth-program-awardees/). I was among 6-10 teachers on staff and taught teenage workshops, in-school/afterschool programs (ArtREACH and ArtCLUB), summer public library and intensive ArtBarn workshops, and professional workshops for public school teachers. I also taught art classes in Spanish for Adelante, a homeless families program funded through Santa Fe public schools. Classes consisted of brainstorming, art historical references and visual aides, demonstrations, hands-on art-making, critiques, and exhibitions. On the Curriculum Task Force I designed art curricula/lessons/activities/motivations based on New Mexico state education grade level standards. On Space Task Force I developed documents to assess needs for current and future space/location. I also interfaced regularly with teachers, parents, and administration.

2010 Instructor, Art workshops, Poeh Center, Pojoaque Pueblo, Pojoaque, NM

I initiated, planned and conducted five workshops for children ages two to thirteen.

2006 Instructor, Art workshops, Pojoaque Public Library, Pojoaque, NM
