Barbara was born in New York City and attended the High-School of Music and Art. She attended Bard and Hunter Colleges where she received her BA in Painting. She received her MFA from New York University.

Barbara began her art career in Peter Max's studio painting animation boards and canvases. She later applied her visual skills to theater and film, designing for Broadway, Off Broadway, regional theater and television; garnering ace award recognition for her work for HBO.

Barbara is now a practicing acupuncturist in Mamaroneck, New York and Stamford Connecticut. Throughout her design and medical career she has continued to work on her art, showing at galleries in New York and Connecticut in both solo and group shows. She also supports the arts by serving on Arts Councils and Boards.

Her studio is in Stamford Connecticut.
