

Portrait Commissions

Portraits are always a challenge and as hard as I try I never achieve a perfect likeness the way a photograph would. However, an original oil painting has a certain quality and presence that no photograph can have and can literally be enjoyed for hundreds of years and passed down from one generation to the next. My portrait commissions have included two prime ministers and two governors general, among others. If you are interested in commissioning a portrait I will need to be able to take my own photos or arrange for sittings.

Non-portrait Commissions are also accepted.
