

Tamara L Beeler

www.tamarabeeler.com

I have taken many roads to get to Studio 611 in Chicago where I spend my days painting.

I graduated from the University of Kansas with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Visual Communication. Following university, I worked professionally as an Art Director at Arts and Leisure Publications in San Francisco and in Print Design and Sales for Lamorinda Press in Lafayette, CA.

I spent many years living overseas in Switzerland, Australia and Singapore seeing the sights and art of the world. Where life has taken me, art has been a part of my life. I have had the opportunity to study with some wonderful teachers and mentors including Clayton Beck, Rebecca George, Laura Robb and Helen Oh.

Through gallery shows and continual exploration with materials and expression I have seen my painting evolve. Like life, I seek to follow many paths and explore my universe.

Education

B.F.A. Visual Communications, University of Kansas, Lawrence School of the Art Institute of Chicago, Chicago, IL
The Palette and Chisel Academy of Fine Arts, Chicago, IL
The Art House, Chicago, IL

Select Exhibitions

2008 Fringe Benefits Gallery, Singapore "Cold Storage in Bikini's"
2011 Palette and Chisel Gallery, Drawing Exhibition, Chicago, IL
2012 The Fine Arts Building Gallery, Chicago, IL, FAB Members
2013 Palette and Chisel Academy of Fine Arts Gallery "Art Love"
2015 Palette and Chisel Academy of Fine Arts "For the Love of Color"