Art Outreach and Programs Designed for US Embassies and Affiliates

American Artist Augustina Droze (based in Beijing) specializes in using art as a tool for diplomacy through murals, community workshops, speaking events and exhibitions with US Embassies and art agencies around the world. She has worked with the Beijing American Center, Colombo Americano, American Center Malé, and State Department funded Fulbright Nehru projects in India. Droze works with local participants to paint murals within American Centers, community buildings, or exterior walls to promote important initiatives.

Programming is focused on themes of:

- Environmental Awareness
- Women's Empowerment
- Cultural Community Building
