

Bio

Kate Walker's work encompasses painting, performance and video, often working with groups in the community. Recent projects focus on queer bodies, and utopian and dystopian imaginings in popular culture.

Walker received her MFA from the University of Arizona, 2005 and teaches at Boise State University.

Walker has shown her work nationally and internationally including at Performance Arcade 2020, NZ; City Gallery Wellington, NZ; Museum of Art Fort Collins, CO; Northwest Film Forum, Seattle WA; Arizona Underground Film Festival, Tucson AZ; New Media Fest 2020 at Torrance Art Museum, CA; Postcollapse MinEastry of Art and Culture, Portland OR (2022) and at Cerritos College Art Gallery, Los Angeles CA.