KATE WALKER

Kate Walker's work encompasses painting, video and performance projects that investigate issues of power, gender and environmental threat. Reflecting on dominant cultural tensions, her work aims to provoke conversation and action.

Recent projects focus on queer bodies, and utopian and dystopian imaginings in popular culture. Walker has shown her work internationally including at; The Performance Arcade 2020 and 2023; NZ.; Rocky Mountain Biennial Museum of Art Fort Collins, CO.; Postcollapse 1989 Part I & Part II, Cerritos College Art Gallery, Los Angeles CA.; 23rd edition of Local Sightings Film Festival Northwest Film Forum, Seattle WA.; New Media Fest 2020 at Torrance Art Museum, CA.

Walker (New Zealand) received her MFA from the University of Arizona, 2005 and teaches at Boise State University.
