Julie Heller East presents

MARY GIAMMARINO and JOSEPH SALERNO

Mary Giammarino

Joseph Salerno

Julie Heller East is hosting new work of two delightful contemporary artists, MARY GIAMMARINO and JOSEPH SALERNO. The plein-aire paintings of Giammarino sparkle with the light that has drawn so many artists to the Cape for a hundred years. They tell of her devotion to capturing the ever changing moods of land and sea and while her palette is impressionistic, her design is often quite contemporary. Joseph Salerno is "especially drawn to the water's edge, where the light, the water, the sand and the boats merge into simple quiet poems". His direct spontaneous work describes these poems exquisitely in paint.

The show will be on display at Julie Heller East, 465 Commercial Street, Provincetown, MA, between August 1 and August 14. An opening reception will be held on the evening of August 1st, starting at 7pm.

In case you won't be in town before the show closes, we encourage you to visit our website, www.juliehellergallery.com, or email us at info@juliehellergallery.com.
