

LAURIE GOODHART

Laurie Goodhart received a BFA from UAlbany in 1985, after interrupting studies to spend several years making props and set dressing for children's theatre and opera. That deep immersion in over-life-size fantasy productions continues to inform her artwork and life as she pursues the mythic and ethereal as an artist, and the fundamental earth processes as an organic farmer -- a path which has included co-founding Nettle Meadow in New York and Domaine De Courval in Quebec.

The largest part of the work is in oil on canvas but also includes prints, artist books, large scale paper mobiles, and sculpture. Goodhart is represented in hundreds of private collections throughout North America, as well as a smattering in Europe and India.
