

b. 1986, London, UK

contact Painter

kofi@kofiboamah.com

Kofi Boamah is a Painter based in London. He has received further development of his Art Practice at Turps Art School (Off-Site Course, 2020-2021). He has been Painting for over 10 years where Boamah concentrates on illustrating the inner workings of the human condition and creating compositions that enlighten, transform and sometimes humourize that which seems ordinary, into sagacious and challenging works. The artist's main aim is to: "Pursue the intrinsic feeling of a violent serenity with suggesting nods to past artists and a new unknown future." Boamah's recent Exhibitions include the Group Exhibition; 'Man Digging' at Exeter Phoenix Gallery (2023) & a Solo Exhibition entitled 'OH GOD' (2023) at H.A.B on Dalston Lane. Boamah has an upcoming Winter Solo Exhibition (TBC).

British Born

Education:

Turps Art School (Off-Site Course, 2020-2021)

Open School East - 2017 - Independent Art School Learning

Selected Exhibitions:

2026

— Solo Exhibition: 'OH GOD II' — Upcoming

— 'Lustre': Group Exhibition: Lea Bridge Gallery — Upcoming

2025

— Group Exhibition: Kingsgate Project Space — 'Some Notes On Looking'

2023

— Group Exhibition: Exeter Phoenix Gallery — Man Digging — Sat 15 Jul 2023 - Sun 03 Sep 2023

— Solo Exhibition: 'OH GOD !' - H.A.B. (65 Dalston Lane) - 27th February - 17th March

2021

— Group Exhibition: Turps Leavers Show - Thames-Side Gallery, 2nd October - 16th October

— Group Exhibition: Kingsgate Project Space - YOUR FOOT IN MY FACE and other tectonic strategies 29th July – 7th August 2021

2019

— Group Exhibition: Deptford Does Art - Trouble

— Group Exhibition: Espacio Gallery - Roots & Rifts - Group Show

2018

— Group Exhibition: Hundred Years Gallery - Duo Show - VII. The Chariot

2017

— Unit 5 - Fuego - Solo Show

2014

— Group Exhibition: Hundred Years Gallery - Subito Carceris = (An improvised prison). Dialogues.