

KOFI BOAMAH

contact artist

kofi@kofiboamah.com

Kofi Boamah (b.1986) is a Painter based in London. Although primarily self-taught, he has received further development of his Art Practice at Turps Art School (Off-Site Course, 2020-2021). He has been Painting for over 10 years where Boamah concentrates on illustrating the inner workings of the human condition and creating compositions that enlighten, transform and sometimes humourize that which seems ordinary, into sagacious and challenging works. The artist's main aim is to: "Pursue the intrinsic feeling of a violent serenity with suggesting nods to past artists and a new unknown future." Boamah's recent Exhibition's include the Group Exhibition; 'Man Digging' at Exeter Phoenix Gallery (2023) & a Solo Exhibition entitled 'OH GOD' (2023) at H.A.B on Dalston Lane. Boamah has an upcoming Winter Solo Exhibition (TBC).

British Born

Education:

Turps Arts School - 2020 - 2021 - Alumni

Writing Course at Burley Fisher, 2019

Open School East - 2017 - Independent Art School Learning

Selected Exhibitions:

2023

— Group Exhibition: Exeter Phoenix Gallery — Man Digging — Sat 15 Jul 2023 - Sun 03 Sep 2023

—'OH GOD !' - H.A.B. (65 Dalston Lane) - Solo Exhibition, 27th February - 17th March

2021

—Turps Leavers Show - Thames-Side Gallery, 2nd October - 16th October

—Kingsgate Project Space - YOUR FOOT IN MY FACE and other tectonic strategies 29th July – 7th August 2021

2019

—Deptford Does Art - Trouble - Group Show

—Espacio Gallery - Roots & Rifts - Group Show

2018

—Hundred Years Gallery - Duo Show - VII. The Chariot

2017

—Unit 5 - Fuego - Solo Show

2014

—Hundred Years Gallery - Subito Carceris = (An improvised prison). Dialogues.