

Bio

I started art making as a child under the direction of an artistic mother, later studying art in college. In later years I updated my training with art courses at Barnesdall, Los Angeles Community College Courses, Kline Academy of Art, Los Angeles and recently trained with Rebecca Crowell, abstract oil mixed media artist/painting instructor. Also, I had deeply been a self studied artist.

I started showing in 2004 at various happenings and shows in Los Angeles such as Saint Thomas Episcopal Church Hollywood, Barnesdall Art Park, Los Angeles Parks and Recreation, Ed Gould Village Hollywood, Art Pour Le Art and Second Avenue Cigar Bar and Gallery. I have been juried into Topanga Canyon Group Show 2014, and Pacific Art League, Palo Alto, CA 2015. Topanga Canyon Gallery juried me in as a member and I was a member 2014 – 2015, which included Monthly service and sitting experience, group shows, and a solo show in 2015.
