Curatorial Experience:

Co-owner and director of Deluxe Projects.

Duties include: installation, gallery space maintenance, web based and hard-copy show announcements / graphic design, public relations, organizing opening night activities, fund-raising, and curatorial studio visits. Deluxe Projects was a curatorial collective consisting of Danielle Gustafson-Sundell, Andy Moore, and Carrie Gundersdorf, and Adam Scott. Starting in May of 2000 and ending in 2006, Deluxe Projects curated 11 solo projects in a variety of media and forms. From 2000-2004 Deluxe Projects was located in the 500 W. Cermak building. Eight of the eleven shows took place in our gallery space. Three of the projects were located in the various incarnations of the "Stray Show". Two of those projects took the form of posters and underground "zines". Our Next project will be the publishing of Andy Moore's 700 page graphic novel.

Deluxe Projects was included in Artists Run Chicago at the Hyde Park Art Center, curated Britton Bertran and Allison Peters Quinn.

Deluxe Projects participated in the form of a free poster that consisted of a love letter to future young DIY gallery spaces.

Deluxe Projects Artists shown:

Carl Warnick (Los Angeles), Nancy Ford (Chicago) Curtis Stage (Los Angeles), Cindy Lohr (Formerly Chicago), Millhouse Collective (Milwaukee), Rihad Miha (New York), Michelle Grabner (Chicago), Andy Moore (Chicago), John Parot (Chicago), The Biotic Baking Brigade (San Francisco), Tim Kerr (Austin, TX), Mike Thomas (owner of Dogmatic Gallery, Chicago), Kay Rosen (Chicago), John Paul Ricco (Art Historian, Toronto), Ken Fandell (Chicago).
