

Kyle Miller was born in Saginaw, Michigan. Predominately working in painting, sculpture, and installation, he received his MFA from the Maryland Institute College of Art in Baltimore in 2007, where he studied sculpture at the Rinehart School of Sculpture. Miller taught 3D Design and Sculpture at Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti, Michigan from 2009- 2014. He taught sculpture during Summer Camp of 2014 and 2019 at the Interlochen Center for the Arts in Interlochen Michigan. In the spring of 2014, Miller completed his second residency at the Vermont Studio Center in Johnson Vermont. Currently, Kyle finds inspiration for his recent body of work from Suprematism, Abstract Expressionism, DADA and through the materials involved in making his work. He currently lives and works in Detroit, Michigan.