

Currently living in New York City

Worked as a graphic designer in Philadelphia and Central New Jersey while continuing to study ceramics since receiving an BFA from Arcadia University.

Lived in and studied ceramics in Tokyo 2002-2004.

Taught Beginning Throwing at Princeton Arts Council 2005-2009

Work in porcelain, both hand-built and wheel thrown, at The Clay Studio Philadelphia, since 2008.

- Exhibiting at 2017 National Ceramic Association show in Portland, Oregon
- Exhibited work and sold in “Small Favors” exhibits 2012 through 2017, The Clay Studio, Philadelphia
- “Ellarslie Open”, Trenton City Museum - 2013 through 2016
- Awarded “Excellence West Windsor Artist 3D” - March 2013
- Exhibited “Community” Show, The Clay Studio, Philadelphia in 2010-16
- Participated in Mercer County Artists Show 2010 and 2011 (awarded Honorable Mention both years)
- Exhibited “Backyard Animals” at D&R Greenway, Princeton, NJ - 2011
- Exhibited “Secrets in Chicago Gallery, A Woman’s Place - 2010
- Participated in a two person show at Princeton Arts Council “Landscapes and Plantscapes” 2008