I AM American Exhibition at Argonne 201 Gallery

"Subspecies Synergia" will exhibit from June 28 - September 15, 2017 as part of the I AM American exhibition, curated by Sergio Gomez at Argonne 201 Gallery in the National Laboratory - Lemont Illinois. "Argonne is a wonderful facility and a great community of scientists," said Sergio in a communication last month.

Community: Corner's New Conversation Space

Corner Gallery, lead by Lynn Basa is transitioning to a conversation space, "I want to have a series of conversations curated by myself and others on different topics," and added, "being able to talk to each other is one of the most redeeming practices that we have as a society." Congratulations Lynn!
