

What People Need

A Book by Emily Pearce

This is a book written for my friend Rachel Schupack in memory of her cousin, Amy Krouse Rosenthal. Amy died in March, 2017. She was a wonderful and prolific children's book author and became well known in other circles for her essay "You May Want to Marry My Husband" which appeared in the New York Times.

"What People Need" was my way of supporting my friend in her grief, and also meditating on the basics of human life and love.

The book was also inspired by my 7 year old daughter, Isabel, who said to me one night as I was putting her to bed, "All I need is food and water and love."

The book is available for purchase as an e-book through the Apple iBooks Store. If you are interested in a hard copy of the book, please contact me at eepearce.com
