

I'm an illustrator and author who primarily works for musicians and authors in both traditional and hand-illustrated digital mediums.

Whether I'm drawing or writing about nature, fantasy, or dystopian scenes, my goal is to invent a world steeped in mystery, symbolism, and myth... creating a place where misfits belong.

Born in the Adirondacks, I lived in Boston for almost thirty years before returning to the forest. I now reside in the Monadnock Region of New Hampshire.
