At the Penny W. Stamps School of Art & Design and the Digital Studies Institute, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor (conference held virtually due to Covid)
Appearance in short documentary, “South”	2021
South Walker is an eighteen year old artist with autism. I have been working with South since he began high school in 2017, helping him refine his skills and expand his material use, vocabulary, and conceptual framework for making art. This film by Patrick Cone and Kyle Gibbins was a Semifinalist at the Vancouver Independent Film Festival (Sept. 2021), and is scheduled to appear at the Slamdance Film Festival in 2022.
