Ona Galería is pleased to present Los Miedos – Carlos Bosch, an exhibition of the most recent work of the renown Argentinian photographer that explores his most profound fears, resulting in a series of pictures that confront the public with their own.

In this unfinished series –‘I will never finish it, it’s an unending series’, says the artist- Bosch shows himself in seven dramatic self-portraits that embody each one of his fears: Ageing, extreme poverty, death, loneliness of the elderly, imprisonment.

With Death, one of these pictures, Bosch was awarded the Argentinian National Photography Award in 2016.
