

Lesley Bodzy is painter and sculptor who works in Houston and New York City. She is currently a 2021 MFA candidate at The School of The Art Institute of Chicago.

Lesley is interested in materiality, luminosity and the interplay of light and color. She uses unusual tools, mediums and surfaces in her paintings. She also creates sculptures using 3-D printers and plexiglass.

She is represented by galleries in New York, Houston and New Jersey. Her work was recently shown at Site:Brooklyn in New York City, The Mattatuck Museum in Connecticut, Guild Hall in Easthampton, NY, and Palix Fine Arts in Houston.

Lesley has a BA from Mount Holyoke College and studied art at Hunter College and the Art Students League of New York.