

Biography

Lynda Coleman, a professional Visual Artist has been painting since the age of 5. However, she has been doing her art professionally since 1994. Lynda is blessed by being able to do community projects with the youth, such as her annual “Art & Poetry for the Heart from the Soul, Exhibit & Networking Conference”, and her “Art from the Heart” Work Shops; with youth ages 5-12. Lynda is also a Youth Advocate and Mentor to at risk youth ages 8-17.

Lynda has been exhibiting her artwork in the community from 1988 until the present. The exhibits have consisted of art shows, conferences, festivals, murals, and displays in businesses, churches, libraries, recreation centers, schools, and silent auctions. Lynda graduated from L.B.J. High School in 1992.

Lynda is a member of Apocalypse Ministries where she’s a Prophetess under the leadership of Apostle Alice Lockhart, Pastor. Lynda’s art ministers love, peace, joy, and healing to hurting souls. It is her desire to continue to touch people’s lives with her work, and to remind them that they are loved by Christ.

Books of Poems (Self Published)

Moved On Rise Above It All

Celebrities (Met because of Art)

Tatyana Ali - Fresh Prince of Bel Air
Reginald Ballard - Bruhman from Martin
Gary Jenkins - R&B Group Silk
A.J. Johnson - Friday

Newspaper Publications

African-American News & issues, 2003
Austin-American Statesman, 1981
Austin Sun Newspaper, 1994
Nokoa Newspaper, 2000
Villager Newspaper, 1990, 2001, 2004

Radio and T.V. Appearances

KAZI 88.7 FM, 2003-present
Host of Local Access Show “Exposure” 2007-2008
KVUE News (Live), 2008
Fox 7 News Morning Show (Live), 2003
News 8 Austin, 2003, 2008

Political Figures (Met because of Art)

Congressman Lloyd Doggett
Representative Wilhelmina Delco