A note on the issue -

Our November 2021 issue is our first ever Haiku themed issue.

Haiku is a Japanese poetic form that consists of three lines, with five syllables in the first, seven in the second and five in the third.

We hope you enjoy the creativity in this issue.

Ice and frost will reign
Purging the leaves from branches
Cold and frozen death
-Johnny Krimson

Cold wind blows leaf haze
Color explodes around me
Calling silent flakes
-Mary Young

Sipping chai, stargaze
Crisp air turns hot with choking
Nervous energy
-Camo Salve

Soft blanket of death
Reverie; a cool caress
Window pane; hot breath
-Josef Desade

Icicle cascades
Freezing drop straight down my back
How I loathe winter
-G. Edweird Cheese

We do this each year
Just the same old run around
I am exhausted
-Porcelain Rose Depino

Lungs, stomach, anus
The fear I have it they fail
Fear will kill me first
-Camo Salve

Blown on a barren land
Sparkling iridescent hue
Night, silver and blue
-Josef Desade

Just go away now
Not another year like this
Stupid fucking snow
-Porcelain Rose Depino
