

ATSU NUMADZI

CONTACT

www.atsunumadzi.com
numadziart@gmail.com
@numadziart
216.496.4202

Atsu Numadzi is a Ghanaian artist whose work explores contemporary ideologies of blackness and West African culture. He was born in the Volta Region (Adidomé) and studied at Ghanatta College of Art and Design. He has exhibited in Ghana, Tanzania and the United States.

He is currently based in Washington DC/Maryland.

SELECTED EXHIBITIONS

- 2021 Artist Feature, The Working Artist, London, UK
Memorial Monument Movement, Art Against Racism, Princeton, NJ
- 2015 The Chocolate Art Show, Los Angeles, CA
- 2014 Behind Appearance, Alliance Française, Dar es Salaam, Tanzania
- 2014 Behind Appearance, Alliance Française, Dar es Salaam, Tanzania
- 2013 City Scape, Nafasi Art Space, Dar es Salaam, Tanzania
- 2010 Can You Hear Me, Alliance Française, Accra, Ghana
- 2009 Bragro, Golden Tulip Hotel, Accra, Ghana

ARTIST RESIDENCIES

- 2015 Nafasi Art Space, Dar es Salaam, Tanzania
- 2013 Nafasi Art Space, Dar es Salaam, Tanzania

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

- 2013 Ecole Française Arthur Rimbaud, Dar es Salaam, Tanzania
Designed and led a Landscape Art workshop for primary school students (grades 2-6).
- 2006 Lycée Française Jaques Prévert, Accra, Ghana
Designed and led an Elements of Art workshop for primary school students (grades 3-5).

EDUCATION

- 2000 Ghanatta College of Art and Design, Accra, Ghana