Project proposal - Ukraine in art

Fia Van den Berg is an Ukrainian artist creating bright and cheerful paintings. The project "Ukraine in art" is oriented to show the experience of refugee artist abroad and absorbing the challenges of nowadays. The paintings are created in different techniques representing the same issues of Ukrainians in the world. The project carries the awareness of war in Ukraine and oriented to show the uneasy fate of the nation.

Self invented technique helps to create art with great variety of styles.

Creation process is oriented to recycling philosophy and friendly to environment.

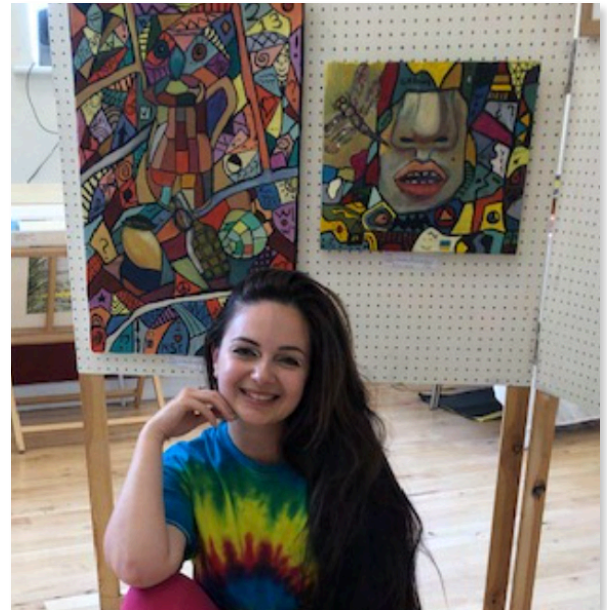

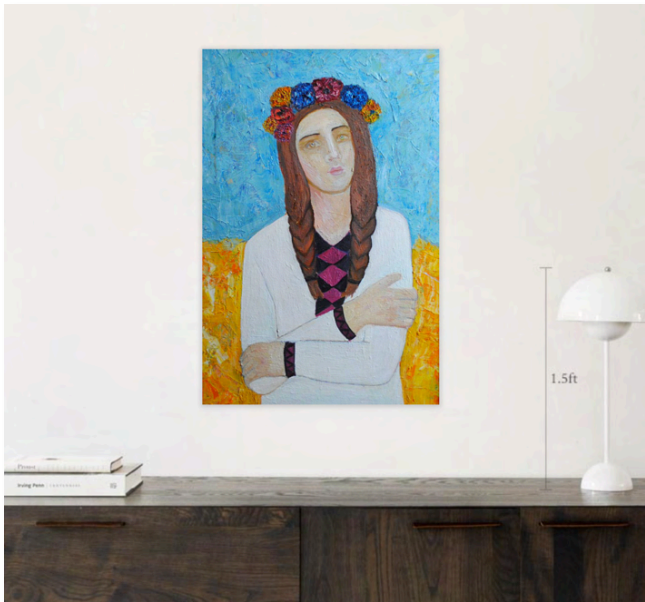

The aim of project is to show Ukrainian art abroad and challenge viewers to think about the hardships of refugees abroad. The project also contains decorative and uplifting paintings to show the brighter part of the exhibition (Peace for Ukraine -2022)

The audience are people of all ages who want to know more about Ukrainian culture.

The paintings are already represented across social media such as instagram , Etsy, Saatchi Art.

The following paintings include different mediums and sizes
